

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election interferes with our democratic process of elections.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, the airways become a propaganda tool for those in power rather than a medium that aids the freedom and democracy that is the birthright of all US citizens. We deserve truth - not propaganda.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
